

Consent Form: Woodstock Natural Health Clinic

Consent to Treatment

Naturopathic medicine therapeutic procedures are considered safe and effective methods of care. Occasionally, however, complications may arise. Any procedure intended to help may have complications. While the chances of experiencing complications are small, it is the practice of this clinic to inform our patients about them. A common complication includes but is not limited to temporary worsening of symptoms before steady, lasting improvement is seen. This is termed a "healing crisis" and is considered by naturopathic physician a normal process of healing. More serious complications are extremely rare. Additional information on side effects and complications for particular treatments is available upon request. It is also our policy to inform you of the procedure being performed and the risks and alternative treatments available. If your physician does not explain to your satisfaction, please ask for more information.

I have read and understand the above statements regarding treatment side effects and I also understand that there is no guarantee for a specific cure or result.
